Voter ID Resource –

Social media copy 1

!Important information for all residents!

As part of new laws introduced by Government, everyone voting in person at a polling station at this year's local elections on 4 May will need to show a valid form of ID to be able to vote

Find out more on the Cotswold District Council website including what ID is accepted and how to apply for free ID if you don't have one of the accepted forms of ID - www.cotswold.gov.uk/voterid

Everyone who needs to apply for ID has until the 25 April to do so

Also remember to register to vote by 17 April if you aren't already registered.

The ID requirements will not affect postal votes so if you want to vote by post you can also find out how to do that on the district council website

Social media copy 2

To vote in elections in England this May, you will need to show photo ID.

No ID? You can apply for free voter ID now and you will need to do so by 25 April

Find out what is accepted and apply for free voter ID if you need to ⬇️

www.cotswold.gov.uk/voterid

Newsletter copy

Voters now required to show acceptable ID at polling stations

As part of new laws introduced by Government, everyone voting in person at a polling station at this year's local elections on 4 May will need to show a valid form of ID to be able to vote.

Find out more on the district council website including what ID is accepted and how to apply for free ID if you don't have one of the accepted forms of ID. Visit www.cotswold.gov.uk/voterid. Everyone who needs to apply for ID has until the 25 April to do so.

The ID requirements will not affect postal votes so if you want to vote by post you can also find out how to do that on the district council website. The deadline to apply for postal votes is 25 April.

All voters will need to make sure they are registered to be able to vote in any way so please make sure to register before 17 April if you aren't already. You can do that by visiting www.gov.uk/register-to-vote

If you aren't online you can contact Cotswold District Council for support by calling 01285 623002 or visit the district council offices.